SINCE 1886—ALL THE NEWS OF MEDINA COUNTY

Tax valuations in Medina County are much in the news at this time, with the most sweeping changes in many years having been established by the commissioner's court, acting as a board of equalization.

My own values were raised, but I did not feel inclined to protest, since it did not seem likely to do me much good, and there are probably reasons why the increase was necessary.

Conversations with various individuals have brought forth the fact that others have protested vigorously, and the changes in their tax valuations have been large. Further talk as to what is the exact dollar difference in taxes is difficult, as most have not figured the difference in net dollars.

The rate was lower, so in many cases the difference is not as great this year as the new valuation would make it appear at first glance.

Reason for this rate reduction is that the 1945 road bond issues have been paid off and this alone brings down the rates considerably.

One thing that makes the new values so shocking to many is that in some cases they had been using figures established about 1900, and bringing such values up to date has been a real jolt to those involved.

As a matter of comparison, we delved into some old Texas Almanacs, source of figures for counties across the state.

In 1935, the available figures for that era showed the Medina County tax values at $9,049,639. The official farm census of that day listed the value of land and buildings at $12,867,686. Retail sales were $1,304,000 for the county. Bank deposits were not listed, but they must have been small.

By 1946, things had improved. Retail sales had doubled, and were $3,525,000. Bank deposits were a little over six million dollars, and the tax values were up to $9,718,060.

In 1964, figures were much different. Bank deposits were up to $12,242,000, retail sales had reached $14 million, and the tax values were at $15,328,983.

The average value of land and improvements on the farms was $72.56 an acre, according to the official farm census figures, and this would naturally vary widely according to the actual farm or ranch. The actual value was way up, totalling nearly $63 million dollars.

Whether this current market value of land in Medina County is in line with the returns that can be earned by farmers and ranchers is open to question. Land values in recent years have been pushed up by city dwellers who have been bidding high so that they can have a good place to hunt, and with little regard to whether the property could pay its way for a man who had no other source of income.

Article VIII of the Texas Constitution states that "Taxation shall be equal and uniform. All property in this state shall be taxed in proportion to its value . . ." and a later amendment restricts this language as follows "No property of any kind shall ever be assessed for ad valorem taxes at greater than its fair cash market value. . . ."

The Texas Almanac states that most Texas property is assessed at about 30 per cent of its actual value, at this time. County Judge Jim Duncan has told us that the court has used 22 per cent of actual value for the current revaluation process, which has taken many months.

Texas is 45th among the 50 states in the per capita tax burden, and this would indicate that we can still consider ourselves lightly touched by the county tax bill.

This is not intended to be an alibi for the commissioner's court, and if there are ways to lower our taxes, we are ready to offer space for discussion of the subject.

School days are upon us, and it is time to once again turn toward the pursuit of knowledge.

So that the English students may engage in a little warming up exercise, sort of a pre-season bit of training, here is a paragraph which can be corrected at home.

I'd tell you to turn to page 2 for the answer, except that I'm not sure.

"If you think like I do about bad grammar you will, like I, want to do something about it. It don't help nobody, socially or financially, to talk like as if he was uneducated. This paragraph is an attempt to learn a few people how to improve their daily speech. You don't need to be a professor to know the simple rules of grammar, and just between you and I, let me say that too much learning and fancy talk is boresome. Like I say, I hope you will study this paragraph carefully and decide how many mistakes you can find. If you can't find none, perhaps you will ask an educable friend to help you. There is more illiteracy and mistakes than you may think."

Kerr Escapees Captured In Yancey Tuesday

Two of three prisoners who escaped early this week from the Kerr County jail were recaptured in Yancey Tuesday afternoon, according to Sheriff Charles J. Hitzfelder.

On a tip from the father of one of the men, officers from the Medina County Sheriff's department accompanied by Sheriff Oliver Moore of Kerr County, found the men hiding in the Cleo Cabrerera residence in Yancey.

Arrested were David Massey, 26, charged with burglary and robbery; Cabrerera, 22, charged with sodomy.

Clarence Wayne Earp, 19, the third prisoner who escaped from the Kerr County jail, had been recaptured near the scene of his escape.

NEIGHBORS ARE TO HELP

By Edna McDade

A home-made toy, intended to provide pleasure for the younger children in the Alex Haby Jr. family of eleven sons and daughters caused near-tragedy instead.

About six weeks ago, Joe Haby, 15, stepped on a nail protruding from one of the boards used in the toy construction. He had been given tetanus shots some years before so only surface medication was applied at the time.

On August 5, Joe became very ill and his parents took him to the hospital in Castroville at 3 o'clock that morning. His case was diagnosed as tetanus (lockjaw) and, on orders of Dr. Eckhart, Joe was rushed to San Antonio by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Haby Jr.

At the Robert B. Green Hospital, the tetanus condition was confirmed and Joe was transferred to the Santa Rosa Medical Center. He has been there about three weeks and is still in the intensive care ward, 5th floor, of the old Santa Rosa building.

Tuesday morning, I talked to Joe's father. He is a butcher in Speltz Bendele's Rio Medina Market. Mr. Haby said that Joe's condition was improving and that he and Mrs. Haby have reason to hope for his eventual recovery. The length of his stay in the hospital is still indefinite but he will probably have to remain there for some weeks.

Mr. Haby admitted that the necessary expense has been heavy. He had received one bill for $1943. With one wage earner

Rains Stage Welcome Comeback In County

At least partial delivery of Medina County's standing order for rain was filled this past weekend. The accompanying Anvil Herald rain map, prepared by the Taylor-Chapman service, points up the general coverage.

The rains fell during a 3-day period, August 22, 23, and 24.

Heaviest precipitation was 4.30 inches on the G. Koch ranch. Other amounts measured from a low of .60 to 3.80 inches.

Not shown on the map for lack of space are these totals included in the Taylor-Chapman survey: George Brucks, 2.50; H. Stiegler, 2.25; L. Oefinger, 1.50; C. Martin, 2.10; M. Brucks, 2.25; J. Britsch, 1.50; D. Neumann, 2 inches.

Also in the path of the rain were: H. Gerdes, 2.10; Arnold Niethoefer, 1.50; M. Boehle, 1.15; John Schweers, 1.50; M. Fohn, 2.20; Edw. Schulte, 1.70; E. Mumme, 1.50; M. Finger, 1.90; T. Grimsinger, 1.50; Wallace Lutz, 1.65; B. Schweers, 80 and C. Van Fleet, 1.30 inches.

NEED MORE RAIN

Tom Bendele recorded 2.65 inches; R. Stiegler, 2.50; Gene Ilse, 1.50; Dr. Walter Meyer, 1.50; C. Nester, 75; W. Conring, 3.80; Wernette Ranch, 1.80; James Grunewald, 1.30; and W. Wilson, in the southeast section, 3.50 inches.

Leo Highsmith on the Mary Louise Deputy Ranch reported 2.45 last Saturday night. In the Yancey area, Mrs. Harrison Wilson says "Everybody reported good rains Saturday night in this section. Even if these are on the map, they will bear repeating because the rain was so welcome." Wilbur Wilson, 1.20; H. Wilson, 1 inch; L. Faseler, 1.50; Koch Ranch, 3.20; A. Eschenburg, 1.30 inches."

Mrs. Ida Jungman, LaCoste correspondent, said "The LaCoste community was hit by high winds and dust Saturday evening. At 8 p.m. this was followed by a good rain amounting to two inches and better in some places. Early Monday morning another 2 inches was added, all of which we are grateful for but it had not been approved so far.

Knowing that a box had been placed on the Anvil Herald for any voluntary contributions, I asked about this. Mr. Haby said that his sister, Mrs. Rudolph Bippert of LaCoste, had undertaken the project to try to get help for Joe's expenses which are mounting daily.

"While I would not ask for money from anyone, knowing that everyone has his own obligations and problems," said Mr. Haby, "I can only say that we are grateful for the interest of the good people of Medina County and for their voluntary help in our time of great need."

The Santa Rosa nursing staff, said Joe's father, "have been wonderful and so kind." He and Mrs. Haby visit Joe every other day. No other visitors are allowed.

At home, Joe's ten brothers and sisters miss him and pray for his recovery and return. The oldest is a sister, 17, and the baby in the family is just one year old.

In Medina County the name of Haby is well known. The Habys have many relatives and even more friends. In this present situation where one of the County's young citizens is struggling for a new lease on life, an opportunity is presented for all who will to lend a neighborly hand to give 15-year-old Joe Haby a chance to take his place among us again.

Doc is predicting that about September 20, time of the Equinox, this area should have some more rains

Gaston Named For County Agent Award

Six Texas county agricultural agents have been named recipients of the National County Agricultural Agents Association's highest honor, their Distinguished Service Awards for 1964.

The honorees are Charlie B. Gaston, Medina County; Billy R. Taylor, Hockley County; Billy M. Collier, Clay County; D. C. Langford, Sutton County; George G. Reese, Mills County; and Carlos B. McCombs, Victoria County.

Their combined years of service to Texas agriculture and the counties they have and are serving total 98 years. C. B. Gaston of Medina County, is the dean of the six from the standpoint of service with a total of 23 years.

The six were nominated by the Texas Association and confirmation from the national organization has been announced by Todd W. Berry, chairman of the Texas Awards Committee and county agent of Van Zandt County.

Berry said the awards are made annually to a select group of the nation's county agents who have, over a period of 10 or more years, made outstanding contributions to agriculture and rural living. In addition to their distinguished service to agriculture, each is active in church, civic and community affairs in their home towns and counties. They have demonstrated their abilities as leaders, organizers and educators on many occasions both in 4-H and adult Extension work. All are employees of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The awards will be presented during the National Association's annual meeting which will be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, October 4-8. Elmo V. Cook, Austin, Travis County agricultural agent, is president of the national organization which has more than 5,000 members.

CREEKS RUN

Even the creeks got in some running practice. Squirrel Creek and Seco Creek, below D' Hanis, were running Sunday. Late Monday a 3-inch rain fell about 10 miles east of Utopia. This put the Seco "in high gear," according to Doc Taylor.

He says that his son, Blanton Taylor, had to stay overnight at the Woodward Ranch Monday night because the Creek was impossible at that point.

The gauge at the Anvil Herald read 1.2 inches. Downtown reporter's varied but the rain was a general over the city.

Hermann Sons To Meet Sept. 1

The annual family barbecue of Hondo Hermann Sons Lodge No. 235 will be held at a 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 1, in connection with the next regular meeting of the lodge, according to W. A. Bendele, secretary of the lodge.

Equalization Plan Meets Opposition

With the last of 7,700 notices in the mail to Medina County tax payers, assorted rumblings are being heard from some of the recipients. County Judge Jim Duncan reports that, on the whole, the announcement of the revaluations toward equalization of the county's assessments has been favorably received.

"It was to be expected," says Duncan, "that we could not please everybody 100 per cent. And, as we explained in the notices to each tax payer on the rolls, they would be given an opportunity to be heard and present any cause as basis for a difference in tax values.

"Many have come in, asked for some clarification or explanation of the values and have been completely satisfied. Many more have told us that they have felt for years that Medina County values were being understated but did not feel it their place to 'protest.'

"And, of course, we've hit some snags from property owners who are against anything that touches the pocketbook. We have a stack of such record cards we call the 'trouble pile' and we will try to work out solutions."

MEETING PLANNED

A group of Medina County land owners, including members of the Medina County Farm Bureau, and others were reportedly making plans to hold a public meeting to discuss some course of action in requesting reconsideration by the County Commissioners. A spokesman for the group said that the sudden increase comes at a time when farmers and ranchers especially are in a depressed condition from low prices on cattle and farm commodities, as well as general drought conditions.

They would like to ask for postponement of any tax increases until the end of 1965.

At the courthouse, Judge Duncan said he had heard "rumors" of such a meeting and commented "Let them meet. We can sure tell them our side of the situation and I think any reasonable man would agree to the need for the action being taken."

REACTION

Duncan cited the case of a group of Houston lawyers who spent about two days "arguing" in behalf of clients who own about 1,800 acres in the north section of Medina County. After they checked other records on land clear across the same section, said Duncan, the lawyers agreed that the new assessment's were fair and withdrew any protests.

"Not a complaint has come from any of the utility companies," said Duncan. He added that several big ranches had had their values increased from 400 to 800 per cent. He said that the owners realized it had to come.

DISCOUNTS

Under the discount allowance for early payment of taxes, the 3 per cent deduction is allowed during October. Alfred Rohrbach, county tax collector, says that all the delays might make it impossible to have the tax rolls ready for statements to be mailed in time to offer the October discount. He said that his office would make every effort to ready the rolls but that nothing could be done until the equalization routines are completed.

If the rolls are not ready for October, tax payers must forfeit the right to the 3 per cent allowance for that month, Rohrbach explained. Deductions decrease by one per cent each month for early payments: 2 per cent in November, 1 per cent in December and net after that date through January.

Dove Season Opens Tues.

Mourning dove hunting season in Medina County opens next Tuesday, September 1. Medina, Uvalde, and Bexar Counties mark the dividing line between the North and South Zones.

Counties to the west of Uvalde, also on the dividing line have only four days of open season on white-winged and mourning doves, Sept. 5, 6 and Sept. 12, 13.

In Medina County, bird hunters will have two months of open season on mourning doves. The season closes October 30.

Bag limits on mourning doves will be 12 per day and 24 in possession.

The Chamber of Commerce has several dove leases listed for the season.

Hunters are reminded that a new law requires that one fully feathered wing must be left on each migratory bird killed this year.

HEALTH AND SAFETY TIPS

BLISTERS
A common, old-fashioned blister can spoil a summer weekend or a vacation trip.

If you enjoy a lot of golf, tennis or hiking during your vacation weeks, a blistered foot or finger can be a minor calamity.

The blister merits closer attention than we usually grant it, says the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations and the Committee on Medical Aspects of Sports of the American Medical Association. The admonitions that apply to organized athletics also are sound tips for the millions of weekend and vacation athletes.

The blister is caused by pressure and friction on a localized area of the skin. Fluid collects between the finer and outer layers of skin. If pressure is continued, it hurts. Even if no infection follows, the pain can cause a limp that isn't much fun for the golfer or hiker, and it can upset the customary grip on a tennis racket or golf club or oar or canoe paddle.

The new 9-hole course, one of the most modern courses south and west of San Antonio, is located at the Dismal County Airport about two miles east of Carrizo Springs on State Highway 82. It has an underground sprinkler irrigation system and a fine stand of grass on the fairways and greens.

The course was built by the Carrizo Springs Civic Improvement Association, a group of citizens interested in promoting Carrizo Springs and Dimmit County. The city and county assisted in building the new course.

A cash prize of $100 is being offered for the first hole-in-one shot on the new course. The first eagle will receive $50 in golf merchandise, and the elbow medalist during the tournament will receive $50 in golf merchandise.

A number of golf pros and other special guests have been invited to witness the first tournament at the new course.

The best approach to blisters is prevention. Proper fit of shoes is fundamental. There should be room beyond the big toe, room across the top, fitting of the ball of the foot into the widest part of the shoe and no slipping at the heel.

Wearing two pairs of socks, a lightweight pair under sweat socks, is recommended for athletics. Hands can be protected by taping or by special sports gloves.

Decision on whether or not to puncture a blister is based on location, size and inflammation. If there are signs of inflammation or irritation, medical attention is indicated. Sometimes it is advisable to puncture a blister before it breaks from friction.

Wash the area with soap and water and sterilize with alcohol. The puncture is made with a sharp needle held in a forceps (small pliers) and sterilized in a flame. The puncture is made at the side of the blister and the outer skin layer is left in place as a protective cover.

SURVIVORS OF DECEASED VETERANS DUE PENSION

Austin, Texas, Aug. 24, 1964.

Widows and children of deceased veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict who have not yet applied for VA pension benefits, are urged to contact their nearest veterans service office and file a claim for this benefit.

The law provides for pension benefits to the dependents of deceased veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict if the dependents meet certain income limitations with regard to income and the size of their estate. The veteran's death did not have to result from his active military service.

According to Charles L. Morris, executive director of the Texas Veteran Affairs Commission, there are a large number of widows and children eligible for this benefit who are unaware of their entitlement, because for some years these persons were not entitled to assistance from the Veterans Administration. He said that there are many widows and children who could benefit from this law by making application to the Veterans Administration.

PENSION ELIGIBILITY

Morris pointed out that the children of deceased World War II and Korean veterans are eligible to receive pension, even though their mother may have remarried since the death of her veteran husband, and even though the children may have been adopted by the mother's new husband. These children are eligible to receive pension while they are unmarried and under the age of eighteen years.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

Texas Democrats and Republicans are gearing for their big clash in the November general election.

Democratic leaders are in Atlantic City, N. J., at their party's national convention.

Gov. John Connally indicated both national and state campaign organizations will be put together in Texas soon after the convention.

Meanwhile, Republicans report they already have built an organization far stronger than any they have fielded to date. They plan to do vigorous battle in local races, as well as national and state campaigns.

GOP assembled its candidates and campaign leaders here last weekend for a special training school in practical political organization, vote-getting tactics and fund-raising activities.

WATER CONSERVATION DROPS

Water conservation storage in major Texas reservoirs dropped at the end of last month to the lowest point since March, 1957. The 6,400,000-acre feet stored was a decrease of 700,000 acre feet from the previous month.

Texas Water Commission said dryland crops and pastures are suffering heavily, and municipal water supply of many small towns has "reached the critical stage."

DOVE SEASONS TO OPEN

Parks and Wildlife Department announces that white wing doves can be hunted on two weekends — September 5-6 and September 12-13.

Regular mourning dove season opens in the north zone of Texas on September 1 and will run through October 30. The south zone season is September 26-November 20.

A new guide to hunting regulations, "Hunting in Texas 1964-1965," now is being distributed through Parks and Wildlife field offices and licensed deputies.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Part-time jobs are being sought and found by the Texas Employment Commission for high school students who need work to be able to stay in school.

THE HONDO ANVIL HERALD

Health and Safety Tips

The American Medical Association's Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports once again has issued its annual pre - fall admonition regarding early season football practice in hot weather.

Special precautions should be observed to safeguard the health of college and high school athletes at the outset of the season, especially when the practice periods are conducted in very warm and highly humid weather.

The tens of thousands of youths who will shortly be trying to make the school teams all over the nation will be subject to heat exhaustion or heat stroke if care is not observed. Heat exhaustion follows depletion of salt and water due to excess sweating. In heat stroke, the body overheats due to lack of sweating.

The old idea that water should be withheld from athletes during workouts has long since been disproved. In fact, it's necessary to replace water lost through sweating to prevent heat exhaustion. This is best done by occasional drinks of small amounts of water, perhaps half a glass.

Salt needs to be replaced daily particularly during the acclimatization period. Extra salting of food within the bounds of taste will accomplish this. Salt tablets, particularly on an empty stomach, can be irritating and may be poorly absorbed. Adding one teaspoon of salt to six quarts of water used for drinking during hot-weather workouts offers another approach.

Frequent rest periods during hot weather workouts are recommended. Coaches are urged to watch players closely for signs of lethargy, inattention, stupor, awkwardness or unusual fatigue. Symptoms of water and salt depletion may include headache, nausea, hallucinations and weak and rapid pulse.

The AMA Committee, composed of physicians with particular interest in sports medicine, offers some points to help coaches prevent heat exhaustion and heat stroke in their young players:

1. Require a careful medical history and checkup prior to beginning of practice.
2. Schedule workouts during cooler morning and early evening hours in hot weather.
3. Acclimate athletes to hot weather by carefully graduated practice schedules.
4. Provide rest periods of 15 to 30 minutes during workouts of an hour or more in hot weather.
5. Supply white clothing (to reflect heat) which is loose and comfortable (to permit heat escape) and permeable to moisture (to allow heat loss via sweat).
6. Furnish extra salt and water in recommended amounts.
7. Watch athletes carefully for signs of trouble, particularly the determined youngster who may not report discomfort.
8. Remember that the temperature and humidity, not the sun, are the important factors. Heat exhaustion and heat stroke can occur in the shade.

Hondo, Texas, Friday, August 28, 1964—Page 1B

Pattern For Youth

Bobby McAnelly was one of thousands among Texas young people who attended the recent attorney general's conference in Austin.

Purpose of the gathering was to discuss ways of fighting problems that are prevalent among some of the state's younger citizens, although very rare among the kind of responsible youth leaders who were at the meeting. They heard about alcohol, narcotics, and school drop outs, and were told reasons for the present day trends.

McAnelly reported on his trip to the Hondo Lions Club last Wednesday, and said they were advised to seek more activity in the schools, such as student council work, tennis, track and other sports, debate, public speaking and various forms of activity with the purpose of keeping all students constructively occupied.

He said that many young people take up drinking in an effort to show off and to "feel big." They are led into the habit by watching their respected elders, he said.

The Lions Club acted as his sponsor for the trip.

Read All About It... If, And When, It Gets There

There are days when the new version of postal "service" seems good, such as those mornings when the Dallas News manages to make it from Dallas to Hondo in about 15 hours.

And then there are days when the Anvil Herald bundle for Devine goes to Laredo, then back to Devine in time for distribution the following Monday. That happened two weeks ago, I am told.

We mailed a package to Seguin on Saturday of last week. On Tuesday afternoon, we received a long distance phone call inquiring about the material that was mailed. We prepared a new shipment, and were planning a 160 mile round trip, since it had to be there on Wednesday. Wednesday morning brought a letter explaining what had happened.

It seems that due to the virtues of economy in the postal service, the Seguin post office does not deliver any packages on Tuesday, and does not even put notices in the boxes of those who are to receive same.

The package which left Hondo on Saturday couldn't make it all that distance to Seguin until Tuesday, so having arrived on the wrong day, nothing was going to happen until Wednesday.

There are days when the mails go through—and then there are times like last week, when our newspapers go to Laredo, and take five days to reach our readers less than 20 miles from Hondo—and when our Sunday papers from Houston arrive on Tuesday, and when weeklies from the Panhandle get here on Tuesday after being printed on Thursday—and when it takes four days to make 20 miles.

Maybe we forgot the zip codes.

Political Involvement

"Have you reached a decision?" the judge queried the jury.

"No, we haven't," the foreman replied.

When the judge pressed for a reason, the foreman replied, "We decided we didn't want to get involved."

Don't snicker. A goodly number of otherwise responsible and respected American citizens have a somewhat similar attitude towards "getting involved" in politics.

Politics is for someone else.

Alas, all too often that "someone else" is a minority seeking its own greedy ends. Or it consists of a person or persons who are less endowed with brains and common horse sense than those who eschew involvement in politics.

Let's offer an example.

Recently at a Rotary Club meeting, a highly respected physician was the speaker. He prefaced his remarks with, "Now, I don't want to get into politics."

For heaven's sake, why shouldn't he?

He is a learned man. He commands great respect from all with whom he comes in contact . . . including his Ro-

Seco Philosopher Studies Prob'm Of Candidates' Finances, He Says

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass lot must have a flaw in his thinking this week, but we'll let you figure it out. Dear editor:

I have been reading the financial statements of the two candidates for President and the way it looks to me, the wives and children are worth more than the men, and I would like to ask you if you think this is a sound trend?

It's a fact, the total worth of Mrs. Johnson and children and Mrs. Goldwater and children is a lot more than the net worth of the two men, according to the financial statements the newspapers have been publishing.

It's not that either man is hard up for cash, but this idea that the women and children have a lot more in their name is a trend which I do not look upon with favor, although I understand I am not asking the Supreme Court to rule on it. Yet the Supreme Court trying to redistrict the division of money between a man and his wife and the kids off. In fact, the Court if it keeps going, is likely to come up one of these days with a ruling whose effect clearly implies the Court itself is unconstitutional, if it hasn't done it already. For example, the Court is now claiming that Congressional districts and state Senatorial and Representative districts throughout the land have to be fairly even in population, or the members are constitutionally elected.

It's a fact, the total worth of Mrs. Johnson and children and Mrs. Goldwater and children is a lot more than the net worth of the two men, according to the financial statements the Georg Gavon, son of M&M C. E. Gaston, has accepted a position at Texas A&M College, Kingville, in the English Department. Mr. Gaston has spent the summer in New York and is expected to arrive in Hondo about September first.

Miss Nell Marie Nixon of Hondo received a master's degree in English from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, in commencement exercises held in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum on Aug. 22.

M&M R. S. Wiemers and Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Wiemers were in Port Lavaca Saturday to attend the wedding of their nephew, Ronald Stiegler of San Antonio, to Miss Jo Ann Foester of Port Lavaca.

House guests of M&M Frank Ward and Mr. Ralph Ward last week were M&M Phillip Ward of Thibodeaux, La., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ward, Dusty and Julianne of Alvarado, Texas.

Carrying this one step further, you reckon it's possible the Court will rule that each United States Senator has to represent the same number of people and that two Senators from a state with 250,000 people aren't entitled to the same vote as two Senators from a state with 10,000,000? Why should two Senators representing only a handful of people in Nevada have the same power as two Senators from New York state with 10 million people or whatever the figure is? Anybody can see this is unconstitutional.

And therefore, if a Supreme Court Justice is confirmed by a Senate made up by this clearly one-sided and unfair representation, isn't the Justice himself unconstitutional?

I tell you, the day the Supreme Court rules the Supreme Court is unconstitutional, where will we turn?

Starting out on the financial condition of Presidential candidates and winding up on the unconstitutionality of the Supreme Court just goes to show you where thinking can lead both me and the Court to. These are critical times we're living in.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

REPORT FOCUS

It is significant that the report about to be released by the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School places tremendous emphasis on technical and vocational training. And it pin-points the community college as the logical educational setting for properly meeting this educational opportunity and challenge.

"As the technical and economic demands of Texas accelerate," the report states, "employment opportunities for skilled or technical workers are expected to exceed the supply of educated manpower."

DEMAND GREAT
The report estimates that more than a quarter million new skilled workers will be needed during the next 10 years. This, the report continues, will demand "a greater dedication of our energies to vocational and technical training."

Our senior colleges simply cannot do this special job for the on-rushing college-age masses. The community colleges, on the other hand, are uniquely suited to do it. It's up to us to see that they have the opportunity to develop properly.

Dear Editor:
WHICH GOLDWATER ARE WE ASKED TO BELIEVE?

The man who made a rip-roaring nose-thumbing speech when he accepted the Republican party's nomination for him as a candidate for the presidency of the United States is certainly not the same fellow who held a mild, dreary and uninspired press conference at Hershey, Pennsylvania on August 12, 1964.

San Francisco Goldwater vigorously defended extremism, declaring that extremism in pursuit of liberty was no crime, and virtually telling those in the party who did not agree with him to pick up their marbles and go home.

We truly wish that Mr. Goldwater could decide for himself what his beliefs are, that he could take a position and stick to it. Then and only then, can reasonable men reach an intelligent decision as to who will obtain their votes and support.

Throughout Mr. Goldwater's pre-convention campaign while hurrying from one end of the country to another, leaping to every available platform and microphone, Goldwater heaped scorn on the old-time Republican party, calling its members, including former president Eisenhower, nothing but "meat-eaters." He said that Eisenhower was nothing more than a dime store New Dealer. Then in Gettysburg, the day before the Republican embrace party was held in Hershey, Goldwater apparently took back everything he had said about the party and about Eisenhower and according to the aging former general, "clarified my doubts and questions."

Another remarkable item to be noted about the Hershey secret love fest was that the three speeches or press interviews were remarkably similar. Rockefeller, in a separate press conference held after the other two had ended, used almost exactly the same words as Eisenhower and Goldwater had used earlier. They all talked about the "mainstream of American thinking," and the aforesaid "fundamental principles" of the Republican party.

Such a lot of hogwash, ditch water and carrot juice has never before been served up to the American people. From where we sit the old behind-the-scenes Republican wire-pullers have grabbed poor Mr. Goldwater, hog-tied and muzzled him into a reasonable fac-simile of Eisenhower, Nixon, Willkie, Dewey, Landon, Taft, McKinley, Grant and other Republicans including Saint Herbert of the Waldorf.
